

GOOD TIMES GUIDE

You Might Be A Heavy Hauler if...

1

You actually know what a CDL is.

2

You know "Wide Load" signs do NOT refer to your "significant other".

3

You learned DOT does not stand for making your "Delivery On-Time".

4

You understand that a Lowboy is a type of trailer - not a piece of furniture.

5

You think it is better to properly chain and bind your load than to have an Officer chain and bind your wrists.

THANK YOU FOR BEING A PROFESSIONAL DRIVER!
